

Wimbledon

Wimbledon is the world's oldest tennis tournament.
It is held at the All England Club in Wimbledon, London.

The events, schedule and courts

Wimbledon is made up of five main events, five junior events and five invitation events.

The five main events are men's singles, ladies' singles, men's doubles, ladies' doubles and mixed doubles.

Wimbledon begins in June and ends in July.

Wimbledon's Centre Court has a moving roof which can be closed over.

Fun facts!

1. Serena Williams, Venus Williams and Roger Federer have all won Wimbledon more than once.
2. Andy Murray was the first British men's singles champion in 77 years.
3. All Wimbledon tennis players must wear all-white or almost all-white clothing.

Photo courtesy of Matthias Rosenkranz, Tristram Biggs (@flickr.com)
- granted under creative commons licence - attribution.

Questions About Wimbledon

1. Is it a new or old tournament?

2. Where is Wimbledon held?

3. Name two women tennis players.

4. Andy Murray was the first British men's champion in how many years?

5. What must players wear?

6. How many main events are there?

7. When is the tournament?

Wimbledon Answers

1. Is it a new or old tournament?

Wimbledon is the world's oldest tennis tournament.

2. Where is Wimbledon held?

It is held at the All England Club in Wimbledon, London.

3. Name two women tennis players.

Serena Williams and Venus Williams are women tennis players.

4. Andy Murray was the first British men's champion in how many years?

He was the first for 77 years.

5. What must players wear?

All Wimbledon tennis players must wear all-white or almost all-white clothing.

6. How many main events are there?

Wimbledon has 5 main events.

7. When is the tournament?

Wimbledon begins in June and end in July.

Wimbledon

Wimbledon is the world's oldest tennis tournament. It is held at the All England Club in Wimbledon, London. It is one of the four Grand Slam tennis tournaments.

The events, schedule and courts

Wimbledon is made up of 15 events; five main events, five junior events and five invitation events. The five main events are gentlemen's singles, ladies' singles, gentlemen's doubles, ladies' doubles and mixed doubles.

Wimbledon begins in June and ends in July. Usually, there is no play on the 'Middle Sunday', but rain sometimes forces play on this day.

Wimbledon's Centre Court has a moving roof which can be closed over the court. The main show courts, Centre Court and No. 1 Court, are normally used for only two weeks per year, but play can go into a third week if there has been lots of rain.

Fun facts!

1. Serena Williams and her sister Venus Williams, have both won Wimbledon more than once.
2. Roger Federer won the men's singles title five times in a row, between 2003 and 2007.
3. Scottish player Andy Murray, was the first British men's singles champion in 77 years.
4. All Wimbledon tennis players must wear all-white or almost all-white clothing.

Photo courtesy of Matthias Rosenkranz, Tristram Biggs (@flickr.com)
- granted under creative commons licence - attribution.

Questions About Wimbledon

1. Where is Wimbledon held?

2. What type of tournaments is it a part of?

3. Name two women tennis players who have won Wimbledon more than once.

4. What was special about Andy Murray's win?

5. What must players wear?

6. How many events are there?

7. When does the tournament take place?

8. Which courts are only usually used for two weeks a year and what can make it go into a third week?

Wimbledon Answers

1. Where is Wimbledon held?
It is held at the All England Club in Wimbledon, London.
2. What type of tournaments is it a part of?
It is one of the four Grand Slam tennis tournaments.
3. Name two women tennis players who have won Wimbledon more than once.
Serena Williams and her sister Venus Williams, have both won Wimbledon more than once.
4. What was special about Andy Murray's win?
Scottish player Andy Murray was the first British men's singles champion in 77 years.
5. What must players wear?
All Wimbledon tennis players must wear all-white or almost all-white clothing.
6. How many events are there?
Wimbledon has 15 events; five main events, five junior events and five invitation events.
7. When does the tournament take place?
Wimbledon begins in June and ends in July.
8. Which courts are only usually used for two weeks a year and what can make it go into a third week?
The main show courts, Centre Court and No. 1 Court, are normally used for only two weeks a year, but play can go into a third week if there has been lots of rain.

Wimbledon

Wimbledon is the world's oldest tennis tournament. It has been held at the All England Club in Wimbledon, London since 1877. It is one of the four Grand Slam tennis tournaments (majors).

The events, schedule and courts

Wimbledon is made up of 15 events; five main events, five junior events and five invitation events. The five main events are gentlemen's singles, ladies' singles, gentlemen's doubles, ladies' doubles and mixed doubles.

In 2017, the championships began and ended in July, making the gap between the tournament and the French Open a little longer. Usually, there is no play on the 'Middle Sunday', however rain sometimes forces play on this day.

Wimbledon's Centre Court has been fitted with a moving roof which can be closed over the court. The main show courts, Centre Court and No. 1 Court, are normally used for only two weeks per year, but play can go into a third week if there has been lots of rain. The other 17 courts are used for other events hosted by the club.

Fun facts!

1. Serena Williams and her sister Venus Williams, have both won Wimbledon more than once.
2. Roger Federer won the men's singles title five times in a row between 2003 and 2007.
3. Scottish player Andy Murray, was the first British men's singles champion in 77 years.
4. The men's singles champion wins a silver gilt cup and the women's singles champion wins a sterling silver salver.
5. All Wimbledon tennis players must wear all-white or almost all-white clothing.
6. Players have to bow or curtsy if HRH The Prince of Wales or Her Majesty the Queen is present in the Royal Box at Centre Court.

Questions About Wimbledon

1. Where is Wimbledon held and how long has it been held there for?

2. What type of tournaments is it a part of?

3. Which players have won Wimbledon more than once and who is the first British winner in almost 100 years?

4. What do the men and women win?

5. Why must players bow or curtsy?

6. How many main events are there and what are they?

7. Why do they sometimes have to play on the 'Middle Sunday'?

Questions About Wimbledon

8. How often are the main show courts used and what are the other 17 used for?

9. Do you like playing or watching tennis and why?

Wimbledon Answers

1. Where is Wimbledon held and how long has it been held there for?
It has been held at the All England Club in Wimbledon, London since 1877.
2. What type of tournaments is it a part of?
It is one of the four Grand Slam tennis tournaments (majors).
3. Which players have won Wimbledon more than once and who is the first British winner in almost 100 years?
Serena Williams, her sister Venus Williams and Roger Federer have all won Wimbledon more than once. Scottish player Andy Murray was the first British men's singles champion in 77 years.
4. What do the men and women win?
The men's singles champion wins a silver gilt cup and the women's singles champion wins a sterling silver salver.
5. Why must players bow or curtsy?
Players have to bow or curtsy if HRH The Prince of Wales or Her Majesty the Queen is present in the Royal Box at Centre Court.
6. How many main events are there and what are they?
There are five main events and they are gentlemen's singles, ladies' singles, gentlemen's doubles, ladies' doubles and mixed doubles.
7. Why do they sometimes have to play on the 'Middle Sunday'?
Usually, there is no play on the 'Middle Sunday', however rain sometimes forces play on this day.
8. How often are the main show courts used and what are the other 17 used for?
The main show courts, Centre Court and No. 1 Court, are normally used for only two weeks per year, but play can go into a third week if there has been lots of rain. The other 17 courts are used for other events hosted by the Club.
9. Do you like playing or watching tennis and why?
Pupils' own responses, such as: I like to play tennis because you get to run around a lot.