

Transport I-Spy

I can understand the differences between statements and exclamations and use them in my writing.

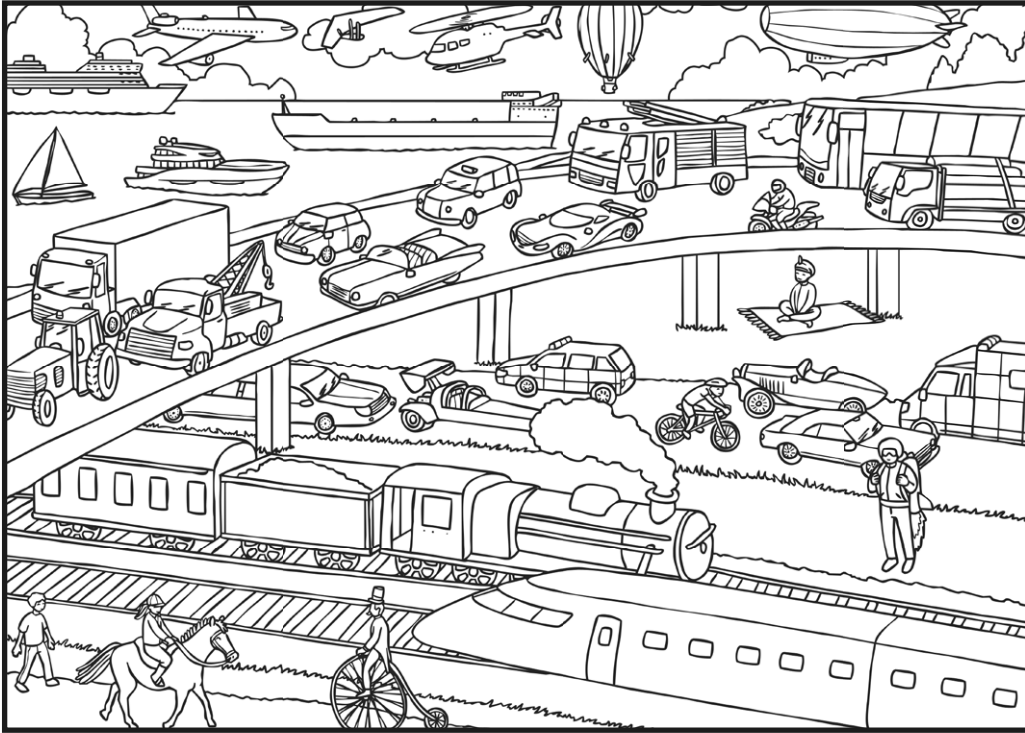

1. Choose words and punctuation to finish the three sentences in each category about the picture above.

Statements	Exclamations
a) There are _____ bicycles _____	d) _____ a fast train that was _____
b) There are _____ things flying in the sky _____	e) _____ a lot of traffic we saw _____
c) The train track goes _____ the bridge _____	f) _____ exciting it would be to fly in a hot air balloon _____

Transport I-Spy

I can understand the differences between statements and exclamations and use them in my writing.

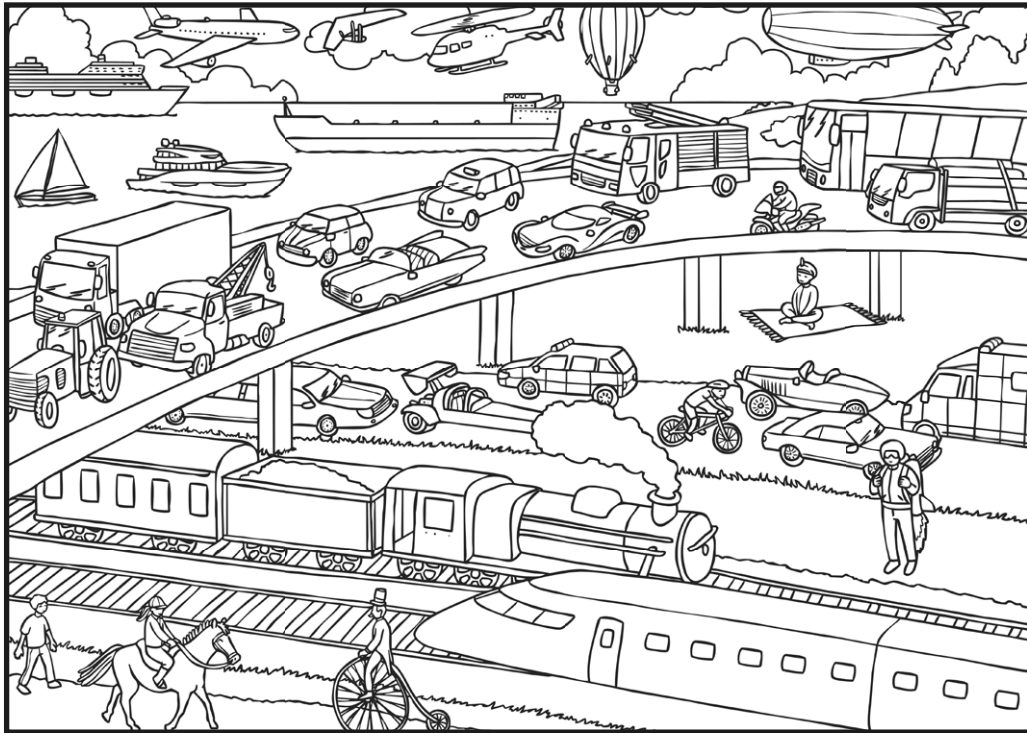

1. Can you write 4 statements and 2 exclamations based on the picture above? There are some examples of each sentence to help you.

Statements	Exclamations
There are two bicycles.	What a fast train that was!
 	How loud those cars are beeping!

Transport I-Spy

I can understand the differences between statements and exclamations and use them in my writing.

1. Write 5 statements and 5 exclamations based on the picture above. There is an example of each sentence to help you.

Statements

There are two bicycles.

Transport I-Spy

Exclamations

What a fast train that was!

1. Choose words and punctuation to finish the three sentences in each category about the picture above.

Statements

- a) There are two bicycles .
- b) There are five things flying in the sky .
- c) The train track goes under the bridge .

Exclamations

- d) What a fast train that was !
- e) What a lot of traffic we saw !
- f) How exciting it would be to fly in a hot air balloon !

1. Can you write 4 statements and 2 exclamations based on the picture above? There are some examples of each sentence to help you.

Check the correct punctuation has been used and that the exclamation sentences begin with 'what' or 'how' and use a verb and a noun.

1. Write 5 statements and 5 exclamations based on the picture above. There is an example of each sentence to help you.

Check the correct punctuation has been used and that the exclamation sentences begin with 'what' or 'how' and use a verb and a noun.