Sound it Out

Play the game with a member of you family. You will need a counter each. Roll the dice and when you land on a picture say the sounds in the word and then write the word down. The winner is the person who has written the most words correctly by the time the first person gets to the finish.

